

Heiko Günther · Germany

Partner (Tax/Legal)

Attorney · Tax Lawyer

Experience

Heiko enjoys advising his clients on all aspects of German and international tax. Having a special interest in cross border transactions he provides his clients with pragmatic and solution-led advice. With over 20 years of professional experience he is specialised in indirect taxes, especially VAT and has extensive international tax planning and compliance experience. He is also dealing with customs regulations.

Besides Heiko is involved in the foundation of German subsidiaries and gives advice relating to permanent establishment/direct tax issues. Heiko collaborates with HLB member firms across the globe to provide clear, concise and commercial advice.

Sector experience

He advised clients across a very broad spectrum ranging from partnerships to quoted companies. Heiko's current client portfolio includes a wide range of different multi-national companies, from the aerospace industry to building firms and from engineering to shipping/logistics companies. Besides he is experienced in the automotive business as well as the apparel industry. He has standing experience to act as gateway for foreign businesses entering into the German market. His team could act as one-stop service provider to get the German/European business started.

Qualifications

Heiko is a certified German attorney with postgraduate education as specialist tax lawyer. He joined the international tax department of Treuhand in 2000. Previously he worked for two other German auditing firms.

Heiko is a member of the German bar association.

When not working Heiko's interests include sailing, cycling and classic cars.

Contact

Treuhand Weser-Ems GmbH
Wirtschaftsprüfungsgesellschaft
Langenweg 55 · 26125 Oldenburg · Germany

P +49 441 9710-130

F +49 441 9710-299

guenther@treuhand.de